

PREMIXED MORTARS FOR PLASTER

Regulation EN998-1

This regulation establishes (among other things) the test criteria and methods for the classification of premixed mortars for plaster. Restoration and renovation plaster must meet all Class R requirements.

Regulation EEC 89/106

This regulation establishes (among other things) that minimum test requirements for premixed mortars for screed provided by the regulation EN 998-1, and that raw materials, production processes and finished products are subject to a control plan with defined periodical testing.